The College of Business at the University of Illinois is internationally recognized as a leading business school, and has outstanding programs in accountancy, business administration, and finance. Through a Business education, students learn to create value that will make a social and economic difference in the lives of individuals, groups, communities, and societies. Business students can develop real-world experience through volunteering and can help them to develop skills such as leadership, entrepreneurship, and global experience. Individuals hoping to extend their business education or interests can benefit from the national, local and campus volunteer opportunities and resources below. These volunteer opportunities will enhance skills and abilities pertaining to research, fundraising, event management, marketing, office support, mathematics, counseling, and global experience.

STATE, NATIONAL, & GLOBAL AGENCIES:

CAMPUS OPPORTUNITIES & REGISTERED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS:

- Brands Give Back (BGB) - exec.bgb@gmail.com
  BGB hosts a fashion show that is held in the Spring and organized throughout the year with multiple committees handling the outcome of the fundraiser event. The money fundraised goes to a non-profit organization they chose to support. With elements of business, fashion, creativity, and philanthropy, the club is always looking for people with a variety of interests and skills.

- Business Council - www.facebook.com/illinoisbusinesscouncil
  Business Council’s mission is to create opportunities for students, lead and facilitate events, and make lasting contributions to the College of Business. There three pillars are professional, service, and social.

- Enactus - www.illinoisenactus.com
  We are students dedicated to changing the world through entrepreneurial action. With a head for business and a heart for the world, our projects impact lives and create sustainable solutions for today’s most challenging problems.

- Global Business Brigades (GBB) - www.uiucgbb.com
  GBB provides a unique combination of international philanthropic experiences, coupled with applicable financial advisory skills. Our members prepare for week-long trips to Honduras in January and Panama in March, to educate families and small businesses about financial literacy. This can include topics such as credit, loans, cooperatives, personal financing, and basic accounting. GBB allows business students to utilize skills learned from courses while making an impact on Honduran and Panamanian citizens. This opportunity allows our members to develop professional skills and provide a positive impact on the global community.

- Phi Chi Theta, Professional Business Fraternity - www.pct-illinois.com
  While we are a business fraternity, we accept all people of all majors with a passion for business. We draw support from our three pillars: professionalism, brotherhood and service.

- Phi Gamma Nu, Professional Business Fraternity - www.facebook.com/PhiGammaNuBetaPi
  Phi Gamma Nu is a Professional Business Fraternity that strives to promote its three pillars: professional, philanthropy, and social. We go about this by providing our members a chance to participate in various events throughout the year.

- Statistics in the Community at UIUC - http://publish.illinois.edu/statcomuiuc
  We are a pro-bono statistical consulting organization associated with the Statistics department connecting the University with the community.

- Students Consulting for Nonprofit Organizations - www.illiniscno.org
  Students Consulting for Nonprofit Organizations strives to aid the community by providing pro-bono, meaningful strategic consulting services for local non-profit organizations. This RSO encourages opportunities for professional development and gaining practical consulting experiences.
