SOCIAL JUSTICE, HUMAN RIGHTS AND CIVIL RIGHTS

CAMPUS OPPORTUNITIES AND REGISTERED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS:

- Alternative Seasonal Break - www.illinoisasb.org
  ASB is a student-run, non-profit service organization at UIUC. During school breaks, ASB participants travel across the country to learn about and actively combat social justice and environmental issues.

- Amnesty International - www.facebook.com/AmnestyUIUC
  Amnesty International is a multi-issue based human rights organization. This chapter works locally to promote and educate about human rights activism by coordinating educational events, and organizing actions around a facet of issues.

- Campus Union for Trans Equality and Support - www.facebook.com/cutes.UIUC
  The Campus Union for Trans Equality and Support is an organization developed to advocate for the equality of, and educate on the issues about, the Trans community, as well as providing a safe space for support and discussion about these issues.

- Channing Murray Foundation - www.channingmurray.org
  Channing Murray Foundation seeks to contribute to a vibrant community life in Champaign-Urbana that values social justice, diversity, and community-building across a diversity of identities and experiences. We are LGBTQ-affirming, interfaith-oriented, and committed to social justice.

- Choose Kindness at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign - www.facebook.com/ChooseKindnessUIUC
  We are a student-led organization devoted to sharing kindness by promoting anti-bullying awareness, diversity, and social inclusivity. Our goal is to help and support the chapters through awareness projects for students of all ages and promote anti-bullying awareness, diversity, and social inclusivity.

- Civil Rights Pilgrimage - www.facebook.com/uoficivilrightspilgrimage
  Each spring break a bus of students heads to the southern US to learn about important events and leaders of the 1960's Civil Rights Movement. Last year we went to Greensboro, Tuskegee, Atlanta, Montgomery, Little Rock and Memphis.

- Harry Potter Alliance - illinois.collegiatelink.net/organization/hpa
  The Harry Potter Alliance uses fan activism to fight for human rights, equality and literacy worldwide.

- Illini Collegians for Life - www.facebook.com/illiniforlife
  Illini Collegians for Life (ICFL) is a human rights group open to all faiths and beliefs that respects the dignity of every human life from conception until natural death. We are for women and children, and are dedicated to promoting a culture of life on campus, with a specific focus on the effects of abortion on our society.
• Interfaith in Action - www.uiucinterfaith.org
  Our goal is to break down barriers and misconceptions that are perpetuated by society and often in political climates, create a space for diverse groups of people to discuss relevant issues, and encourage building bridges between different communities through participation in service work.

• International Justice Mission at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign - www.facebook.com/ijmillini
  IJM, a global organization, fights to end slavery around the world. As a chapter, we work to raise awareness of the issues IJM stands against and to provide opportunities for individuals to directly join the cause.

• J Street U Illinois - https://illinois.collegiatelink.net/organization/JStreetU
  J Street U is the student chapter advocating and educating for vigorous and sustained American leadership in facilitating a negotiated, two-state resolution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

• Liberty in North Korea - https://illinois.collegiatelink.net/organization/libertyinnorthkorea
  LiNK is a national non-profit organization that works to increase awareness about the exploitation of North Korea by its leader Kim Jong-Un. The UIUC chapter works to increase awareness on the campus through public demonstrations, documentary screenings, fundraisers, and other events.

• MEDLIFE - www.uiucmedlife.wordpress.com/about
  MEDLIFE is a secular, volunteer-run global health organization whose mission is to help families achieve greater freedom from the constraints of poverty, empowering them to live healthier lives. MEDLIFE UIUC works to promote the highest standard of MEDLIFE’s goals and reputation within the community.

• Pride - www.facebook.com/illinoispride
  Pride is the oldest and largest lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) registered student organization at UIUC! We are dedicated to serving the needs of the LGBT campus community.

• Prison Justice Project RSO - www.facebook.com/pjjrso
  The aim of this group is to create safe, productive spaces to address social justice issues pertaining to incarceration. We aim to foster the development of a diverse community, passionate about transforming the penal system of the US.

• Social Justice and Leadership Education (SJLE) - University Housing - housing.illinois.edu/inclusive
  The SJLE team, a component of Housing at U of I, coordinates student groups, leadership opportunities, and social justice initiatives in the residence halls that focus on diversity education, resident leadership and dialogue creation.

• Students for Justice in Palestine - www.facebook.com/SJP.UIUC
  We aim to create a forum for Palestinian independence and basic human rights. Our objective is to look beyond the stereotypes to cultivate a comprehensive understanding of the underlying issues contributing to this conflict by providing students with alternative sources of information.

• United Minority Relief, UIUC - www.facebook.com/umruiuuc
  United Muslim Relief is a not-for-profit organization that brings those living under extreme harsh conditions to ease through fundraising. Everyone, regardless of race and religion has a right to a sustainable livelihood.

• University YMCA - www.universityymca.org/faith_and_justice
  University YMCA has been sponsoring programs, organizations and activities dedicated to fostering ethical and principled leadership dedicated to building a better world, better human relations and better care for the Earth.

• Volunteer Illini Projects (VIP) - Social Empowerment - social.empowerment.vip@gmail.com
  The Social Empowerment project strives to aid people in the C-U community that are going through life transitions. Volunteers work to promote community building for self-sufficiency and for social change.