TUTORING

STATE, NATIONAL & GLOBAL AGENCIES

- Literacy Works - www.litworks.org/get-involved/become-a-tutor
  Literacy Works’ mission is to strengthen adult literacy, parent education, and workforce development programs by developing and providing innovative training and knowledge-sharing opportunities for professionals and volunteers. Due to the state budget impasse, most Literacy Works member agencies have not received full funding. These programs need volunteers more than ever!

- National Tutoring Association - www.ntatutor.com/join.html
  The National Tutoring Association purpose is to promote education, specialization, and scientific research. They are the oldest and largest professional association dedicated to tutoring. This organization represents the interests of thousands of tutors throughout the United States and thirteen other countries, practicing in all sectors of tutoring, program administration, and supplemental student services.

- Reading Partners - readingpartners.org/volunteer
  Reading Partners is a national education nonprofit that works with elementary schools to support students who are reading six months to two and a half years below grade-level. We recruit and train community volunteers to work one-on-one with students by following a structured, research-based curriculum.

- Tutoring Chicago - www.tutoringchicago.org/volunteer
  Beginning its 48th year of service, Tutoring Chicago provides free one to one after-school tutoring for over 300 students in grades one through six. Tutoring Chicago fosters pathways for success by positively influencing the relationship that elementary school children have with learning. We do this by pairing economically disadvantaged children with one to one adult tutors, and by providing quality resources and opportunities.
